Reviews

It is great and fantastic. I actually have read and so i am certain that i am going to going to go through once again yet again in the future. I realized this ebook from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .in fixing a standard of 18 per cent., which should include these Irish butters?--I do, undoubtedly, because I believe there are many times in the season when it would not be possible for a poor farmer to work down to that limit. 7311. What do you think would be a fair standard which would not inflict any injustice upon the Irish farmers?--20 per cent. 7312. 20 per cent., you think, would do it?--Yes; and I also think--as the Chairman was good enough to ask my opinion upon that point--that it would be a safer limit for another reason too. If you fix 20 per cent, it is easier to come down by another regulation of the Department than to come down suddenly, and to find it a greater difficulty to go up, after having perhaps punished a lot of innocent men; you cannot restore their good name, and you cannot give them compensation for the harm and worry and trouble you have caused them. Therefore, if you made a mistake it would be on the side of being able to rectify it afterwards. 7313. If that was made the standard, do you not think it would be a great discredit to British butters for it to be advertised that they contain 20 per cent, of water, when you and other men know that the Danish, the Australian, the New Zealand, and other buttermakers could sell their butters containing only 14 per cent. 1--All those countries...
