Jackson county was a sufficient Erecedent, and as the authorities in that county did not interfere, they oasted that they would not in this, which, on application to the authorities, we found to be too true, and after much violence, privation and loss of property, we were again driven from our homes. We next settled in Caldwell and Davies counties, where we made large and extensive settlements, thinking to free ourselves from the power of oppression by settling in new counties, with very few inhabitants in them, but here we were not allowed to live in peace, but in 1838 we were again attacked by mobs; an exterminating order was issued by Governor Boggs, and under the sanction of law, an organized banditti ranged through the country, robbed us of our cattle, sheep, horses, hogs, etc., many of our people...
