Is wheat the only thing that you have learnt to grow in fifty years, Mr. Davis? We have just come through your land, and I noticed that a good deal of it was pasture, and we stopped for a moment to look at a herd of cows. Do you know nothing about dairying at all? Oh, indeed, said Mrs. Davis, we have been very proud of our dairy. Next to the wheat it has been the chief thing with us. When I was younger and could do more myself, I looked after it entirely, and it is still a model dairy for its size. There you are! said Armitage Brown in good-humoured triumph. I thought I had come to the right place to get advice upon details. Mr. Davis, I expect you know just as...
