Have I Reasons: Work and Writings, 1993-2007

By Robert Morris, Nena Tsouti-Schillinger

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Have I Reasons: Work and Writings, 1993-2007, Robert Morris, Nena Tsouti-Schillinger, A leading figure in postwar American art, Robert Morris is best known as a pioneer of Minimalist sculpture, Process Art, and earthworks. Yet Morris has resisted affiliation with any one movement or style. An extraordinarily versatile artist, he has produced dances, performance pieces, prints, paintings, drawings, and installations, working with materials including plywood, felt, dirt, aluminum, steel mesh, fiberglass, and encaustic. Throughout his career, Morris has written influential critical essays, commenting on his own work as well as that of other artists, and exploring through text many of the theoretical concerns - about perception, materiality, space, and the process of art-making - that he has addressed in his artwork. "Have I Reasons" presents seventeen of Morris' essays, six of which have never been published before. Written over the past fifteen years, the essays, along with the volume's many illustrations, provide an invaluable record of the recent thought of a major American artist. The writings are arranged chronologically, beginning with "Indiana Street," a vivid autobiographical account of the artist's early years in Kansas City, Missouri. "Have I Reasons" includes reflections on Morris'...
