Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Red, White and Black: Twelve Stories of the South He was washing his ear with a finger dripping with lather, his face screwed up into a grotesque mask, when suddenly the words raced through his brain: . .a small portion of the ruling class breaks away to make common cause with the revolutionary class, the class which holds the future in its hands. He withdrew his finger slowly from his ear, and sat motionless in the water with his eyes still shut, his hand still poised beside his head, his finger still extended in the manner of a speaker about to make a vigorous affirmative gesture. Gradually he relaxed. His face lost its tight, unnatural lines, his eyes blinked wide open, and he dropped his hand slowly into the tub. Sitting there in the soapy water he looked for all the world like a wrinkled priest of some remote and savage tribe. On top his head was almost completely bald and he had allowed the fringe of hair around the sides to grow too long,...
